

Cotton Phenomenon

Mrs. Ederlazi Munhoz Cardoso, better known as a medium or “cotton healer,” also referred to as the “cotton phenomenon,” has been materializing objects in cotton for many years.

In a piece of cotton, she materializes various objects such as bones, hair, shards of glass, among others. She attends to hundreds of people who come to her seeking to rid themselves of negative influences and spells.

Mrs. Ederlazi has already received visits from people from several countries who come to learn about her work and seek healing or freedom from negative forces.

Ederlazi assists people facing difficulties in their lives at her space called Estância Casa Caminho da Luz, located in Votuporanga, São Paulo.

This phenomenon, known as the “cotton phenomenon,” is believed to free individuals from negative energies created by our own minds or by others who wish to harm us.

Ederlazi Munhoz Cardoso is a medium who transports and materializes objects — in other words, she transfers all influences into the cotton.

The actress Shirley MacLaine made a documentary about herself, in which she followed several cases over the course of two years. In this photo, she can be seen observing and photographing the phenomenon.

How is the treatment carried out?

Upon arriving at the place, we purchase the rolls of cotton, which are handed out in bags with labels where we will write our name and the names of the absent people for whom we will be requesting help. Then, we begin to unravel this cotton while praying and asking for the release of all negative energies that may be blocking areas of our lives. And we will do the same for all the absent people for whom we are requesting spiritual help.

Second stage

After unraveling the cotton, we take it to the chapel and pour it onto some sieves. These sieves remain on the altar until she arrives. Then, she begins placing them over the mouth of a tank and starts pouring water over the cotton, until it turns into a paste and reduces in volume. This tank is used to drain the water without wetting the floor where everyone will be participating in the process.

Third stage

At 2:00 p.m., she arrives and gives a short talk explaining what this spiritual cleansing work consists of. It involves the Transportation and Materialization of negative energies that are present in our morphological field or in our unconscious. During the cleansing, these energies are transformed into various objects, which serve as a code to indicate the area where those energies were acting. After the cleansing, we must perform a trezena: 13 days of prayers to Our Lady of the Rosary and also give up a habit during those 13 days as a form of sacrifice.

Fourth stage

We enter the chapel, and she begins the process. The cotton is wet, and we are called near the sieve; at that moment, the objects begin to appear and are placed in the bags with the corresponding names, and then we leave the room. Outside, we can observe these objects, photograph them, and later discard them in a designated place where they will be collected by the city authorities to be incinerated.

Examples of materialized objects

In this case: White candle (energy aimed at disrupting spiritual peace), Hair (energies directed at attacking the mind, causing stress, depression, exhaustion, etc.), Rope (energy meant to keep things tied down or stagnant), A candle and an image of Tranca Ruas (an archetype from Umbanda whose very name indicates energy to block goals and paths), Comb (energy to affect the nervous system and the mind), “Desmancha Tudo” candle (energies meant to cause losses, make everything fall apart, and prevent continuity).

These energies can only be truly understood by the person themselves, who will recognize in which area they were acting: love, emotions, finances, career, health—or even all of them.

In this case, when that iron doll appears: it means the person was being targeted by spiritual obsession.

The candle in the shape of a penis: represents energies aimed at affecting the sentimental and love life.

Ceramic: affects the mind.

Leaf: takes away serenity.

Purple candle: causes anguish, sadness, and depression.

These are examples of negative energies. In cases involving witchcraft or magic rituals, the objects come identified and prepared with clothing items, names, personal belongings, photos, etc.

This is Mr. Edelarzil, who has been carrying out this work with love and dedication for 71 years in Votuporanga, São Paulo.

We attend this spiritual work once a month, and if you're interested in participating remotely or would like more information, you can contact me via WhatsApp: +55 (62) 98400-0460.

Prayers for the Trezena

Pray for 13 days

OUR FATHER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

I greet you, O Glorious Virgin,
Brighter than the sun,
Whiter than the lily,
Higher in the heavens than all the saints.

You are venerated throughout the earth,

Receive my humble homage,
And come to our aid,
Amid your glorious days in heaven.

Do not forget, O Virgin,
Mother to the sorrow of the earth,
Cast a kind gaze
Upon those who suffer,
And who struggle with hardship,
And who never cease to wet their lips
With the bitterness of this life.

Have mercy on those who weep,
On those who pray and those who fear.

Grant everyone hope and peace.

—So be it!

PRAYER TO SAINT ANTHONY

Saint Anthony celebrates the Mass,

Our Lady stands at the altar.

I will ask Saint Anthony

To guide your steps.

To you, wondrous Saint,

We come to offer praise.

I invoke you, O zealous and faithful protector.

The Lord has filled us

With your true blessings.

Saint Anthony, dear father,

What power in heaven do you not possess?

What power has God granted you—

To make what is lost be found.

And always intercede for us,

Do not let us go astray.

Our faith is in danger,

Morality is under threat.

Saint Anthony, great friend,

Remove evil from among us.

Your steps are miraculous, your power admirable.

In your arms,

Jesus chose to rest.

May He grant us virtues, so we may imitate them with fervor.

Saint Anthony, blissful one,

Leads all to salvation.

Covered with the mantle of Our Lady of Guidance, I shall walk — or perhaps I shall not walk —
I will come upon a cross;
It was the angel Saint Gabriel
Who found the Blessed Virgin
And greeted her by praying
the Hail Mary.

HAIL MARY

Hail Mary, full of grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
And blessed is the fruit
of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for us sinners,
Now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

May the arm of the Almighty fall upon anyone who wishes to do evil;
May they be frozen like stone,
While I, a poor sinner, continue to serve Our Lord. Amen.

Take what you brought;
May God bless me with His Holy Cross.

May God protect me from the evil
eye, from envy,
And from all harm others may wish to do to me.

He who does evil is iron, and I am steel.

He who does evil is the devil, and I am shame to him.

In the name of the Father, the Son,
and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
